ROSETTA LINDSAY AGAIN .- This unfortunate female who has figured so extensively in our Po-lice Court, after a short absence has made her appearance again. A short time since the Com montConneil liberated Rosetta at the request of a number of benevolent ladies of this city, who interested themselves in her behalf, and procured

her a home in a respectable family at Wauwatess.

The News. In Congress the appointment of the Belest Committee, to whom the Kansas Message and Lecompton Constitution has been referred, was announced. Mr. Harris, of Illinois, is chairman. An outrage had been committed apon the American flag, by the seizure without just cause of an American vessel, the James Watson, by a British cruiser, which carried her late Seria Loon, but afterwards released her. The matter has been laid before the British Government, and it is asserted that the officers who committed the outrage would be deprived of his com-anticipated disturbance at Fort Scott, caused by Border Ruffian autoyances to the Free State mon. The Free State military companies were determined to defend their friends. From information received at St. Louis, it is likely that Governor Denver will soon be decapitated, and John K. Porter of Albany, it is said, appointed in his stead. We publish a graphic account of the late melee in Congress from the N. Y. Times. Mr. Potter of Wisconsin, was in the muss, dealing heavy blows to the fire-cators on all sides. The proceedings of our State Legislature are of an interesting nature.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6, 1858.

A little before 4 o'clock this morning, Mr. Grow, who is the recognized Republican leader in the House, wont over to the Democratic side of the Hall to talk with Mr. Hickman, of Fonnof the Mail to take with Mr. Meschan, of rond-sylvania. As he throad to leave, Mr. Quitman rose and asked him to make an explanation. Mr. Grow objected to any speeches which were out of order, and then started down the aisle with a of order, and then search down the dissession with a view of returning to his ownseat, when Mr. Keitt, of South Carolina, called out to him, asking, "Why don't you go over on your own side, God ——n you, if you want to object? What business have you on this side, any how?" or searching to that effect.

to that effort.

Mr. Grow replied quietly and coolly, raying,

"This is a free hall, and I have the right to object from any part of it, when I choose."— Then, in response to ma appeal-from Mr. Harris, of Hilmole, Mr. Grow withdraw his objection, in order to permit then. Quitmen to go on. By this time, Killi, who seems to have supposed that he tind, Kitt, was come to an object the first had only to look ferociously at a Northern men to with him—and who presumed, perhaps, upon the fact that he is a more athletic must than the gontleman from Pennsylvania—had crossed over to most Mr. Grow. As the latter was about to pass, Keitt inquired in a rufflanly tone, "What did you mean by that snawer which you gave me ant precisely what I said—that this is a "I meant precisely what I said—that this is a free hall, and I will object from whatover part of it I see fit," was Mr. Grow's reply, as he looked his assilant calmly in the face. The chivalrous and gentlemanly South Carolinian returned to the charge, saying—"I'll show you, you are a d—d black Republican puppy!" Mr. Grow. still unexcited, answered—"You may thick me what you please, Mr. Kellt, but let me tell you that no nigger driver shall come up from his plantation to crack his lash about my ears!"—"We'll see about that," said Kellt, as he caught Mr. Grow by the threat. Mr. G. throw his assistipl, who had followed Mr. Kout, oridently with the lutunities of restraining him, interposed at once for peace.

This ended the difficulty for an instant, but almost immediately Keitt broke from Mr. Davis almost immediately Kent orace from Mr. Davis and rushed upon Grow, solving him again by the throat, when the latter planted a blow under the loft oar of "the gentleman from South Carolina," which sprawled him fairly upon his face on the floor. Mr. K. picked himself up, and after some ineffectual and random passes, left the ball and was soon no more until after the meles chied, except he ways fellends who scopped his lutilegawas soon no more than after the meter sinde, oxcept by some friends who sponged his bruises. I understand he is under the impression that he statibed his toe, and so full. The mistake, certainly, is excusable, for the blow which he finally provoked from Mr. Grow's long-suffering pationee, was so severe that he would hardly be expected to have any very clear recollection of he circumstances.

refressionations, which takes so much time These transactions, which takes so much lime to relate, were the west of a very few minutes, and all occurred on the Domocratic side of the House. When the house struck, a dozen Southorn mer reinsten roward the parties, some doubtless to keep the peace, and others to have a hard in the fight. Barkadale, of Mississippi, McQueen of South Carolina, and Ruuben Davis were prominent in the scrimmage. Barkadale specificly states, and I doubt not truly, that his only object was to separate the contestants. He specificly states, and I coust not truly, that his only object was to separate the contestants. He and other opponents solved upon Grow at once, as Keitt was already hibre du combat. To gentlemen on the other side of the hall, it looked very much as though the gentlemen from Fonnia was about to be cut into mince ment body to the representation of the control of the excited group, of Wisconsin, a very athletic, compact man, who bounded into the control of the excited group, striking right and left-with tremondous vigor.—

Washburne, of Illingist and his brother of Wisconsin, also were prominent and for a minute or two it seemed as the the we were to have a Kill kenny light on a magnificant scale.

"into chancery" and pummelling him to greater malefaction. Horrible to relate, Mr. Barkstale's wig came off in Cadwallador's left hand—upd his right list expended itself with tremondous force against the unresisting air. This ludicrons incident unquestionably did much towards restoring good nature subsequently—and its effect was heightened not a little by the fact that in the excitement on the occasion Barksdule restored his wir wrong sith forement.

There seemed to be very little mathed in the struggle, and it was hard to tell who was in for earnest, and who was trying to restore order.

The Speaker yelled and rapped forester, without officet. The Sergeantan-Arms statisted to the seeme of battle, mace in hand, but his "American cane" had no more officet that the Speaker's gavel. Fortunately, it did not last long, and no weapons were openly displayed. When order was restored, several gentlemen were found to possess an excessively tumbled and disorderly appearance, but their remained littlesoles to recall the excitement. Gentlemen of opposite parties crossed over to each other to explain their parties crossed over to each other to explain their putified dispositions, and they get into a fight when their only purposa was to present a light. Mutaal explanations, and a Learty laugh at the ludicrous points of the drama, were followed by quiet, and a return to business. Disgeaceful though all such scenes are, it must be admitted quiet, and a return to business. Disgraceful though all such seemes are, it must be admitted that Mr. Grow was in no degree responsible for this. He was brutully assailed, and defended himself only when forbearance ceased to be a virtue. If the tessee which he impressed upon his assailant, should have the effect of restraing, henceforth Mr. Keitt's exhibitions of insolence, and his affectations of superiority over his equals, I don't know that the result will have been to dearly purchased. He seems to have labored for years under the impression that a man who don't own negroes can be tredden upon with impunity, and it is to be hoped that his present disconfibure will inspire him with the respect for his colleagues which is respect for his colleagues which is with the (From the New York Tribung Operesponding)

The primal cause was the insolence of Mr. Keltt, who not only insulted Mr. Grow with blackguard language, but offered him personal violence by selving him by the throat. CITY MATTERS.

THE SCHOOLS OF CLEVELAND, -- We lavite the attention of our renders, and especially these who take an interest in the subject of Popular Education, to the graphic letter of our Cleveland correspondent in this morning's paper. CLEVE-6430, more nearly than any other city on the Luker, resembles Minwaukze, and competes with it for the pulm of beauty. But in the arrangement and management of her Public Schools our elder sister, Chrysland, is our supeior and sets us an example that we should be alike prompt and proud to Imitate. None who read our correspondent's letter can besitate how to answer his purtinent query, "Shall we not have a Ragged School in Milicankee?" Of course we shall and will.

Common Countri-The Hanbor Lavesticartos.-The Common Council is still engaged ital invention in its way, and we must say our with the investigation of the Harbor matter, and | Eastern cotemporary, in our opinion, has done it is likely will be for several days to come .--Alderman Prentiss offered a resolution yesterday morning, which, after some debating, was unanimously adopted, to appoint I. A. LAPHAM, Esq., in connection with the City Engineer, to resurvey, and re-estimate all the work done upon the Straight Cut Harbor from the commencement, and report the same to the Council at their earliest convenience. After the adoption of this resolution, the board wolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, Ald. Mallory in the Chair, and continued with the examination of the Harbor documents.

THE WEATHER .- Yesterday the weather was day provious, although at seven p'clock yosterday morning the mercury stood eleven degrees below zero. At noon, however, it was nearly that number of degrees above zero. Wednesday night was, by all means, the coldest of the section thus far. The sleighting is, pretty well worn down in our streets, and a little more snow would be most accoptable just now.

"THE BEST HOTEL IN THE COUNTRY,"-Within the past few days we have beard this remark repeatedly applied to the "Newhall House," in this city, by gentlemen from New York and elsewhere, who have had abundant experience of Hotel life both in the United States and abroad. We certainly think it no exaggeration to say, that in point of convenient arrangement, siry, cleanly and well furnished rooms, an unexcent tionable cuisine, moderate charges, pains taking and gentlemanly landlords, and an efficient staff, the "Newhall House" has no equal in the West, and up superior in the Union.

THE GRAND MASQUERADE OF THE MUSICAL SO CIETY,-The annual Masquerade Bail of the Musical Society which comes off on the 16th, is to be the party of the season. The members of the society are taking great pains to make this more attractive than any of their previous masque entertainments. One of the most amusing features of the evening will be the performance of a comic opera called the "Whale," by the members of the Musical Society. There will also, we understand, be a number of imposing tableaux, and fancy dances also performed by the members. There will undoubtedly be a crowd there, and it is to be regretted that there is no larger hall in the city than Young's, that would be suitable for their exhibitions. Notwithstanding this, however, it will be a brilliant affair.

The Cameralls.—Of the large and fashionnote audience assembled last night at Smith & Nixon's Hall, there was not one but endorsed the "Minstrels" as the best troupe that has ever visited Cincinnati. It is not that they embody the elements of mitth and music in a pre-eminent degree, but, they also exhibit the rare features of originality, and we must confess that, hackneyed as we are in all appertaining to this peculiar lustitution of American minstrelsy, we were neyed as we are in an appertuning totals pecu-liar lustilution of American ministrely, we were outirely nonplused by the entertainment we in part witnessed last night, and that there is some-tling now under the sun was. Byron to the con-trary notwithstanding, indelibly impressed upon

The band numbers eighteen persons— performers, vocalists and musicians. In fact, so far as this latter accomblishment, is concerned each member of the troupe is a musician of no mean proteusion. The orchestral performance is in-finitely superior to that of any other band, and the introduction of brass instruments improve the introduction of brass instruments improves the usual Ethiopean band amazingly.

There are some excellent solo singers in the troupe, and their choruses are particularly fine. One old gon of a ballad, "The happy days of Yore," was capitally sung by Mr. Leslie. The song itself is one of the rere old English bijous written, if we mietake not, by Thomas Haynes Balley, and bearing the impress of Bishop. It has long beed shelved, and we are indebted to Mr. Leslie for reviving it again. Like crusted port it has improved by age. Lucia, was rendered in Humpareys own magnificent style, and in fact, the performance throughout was replete with excellence.

There are two phenomenon in this party, boys, the oldest not more than eight years old, and the youngest not bigger than a boarding school girl's doll. Well, the former sung the Scotch ballad of "Willie we have missed year." with a pathes and execution not, to be you," with a pathos and execution not to be excelled by a full fledged biped, and the latter "Young America," sung and danced Bob Ridley so as to get some excited individuals almost in to convulsions.

A CAPITAL INVENTION .- A short time since we clipped an article from a New Jersey exchange speaking in rather a derogatory manner of a "Door Alarm" invented by Wm. HUNT of Mayaville in this State.

We had not heard of the invention previously and supposed that our New Jersey cotemporary was correct, and that the "Unparallelled Does Alarm" was an unparallelled humbug. Certain ly that would be the inference from reading the article alluded to. Mr. Hart has called upon us with a specimen of his "Door Alarm" or more properly door fastener, which we think is a cap Mr. Hart great injustice.

It is very simple, and we are only surprised that in this age of improvements some smart Yankee has not the't of it sooner. It is intended as a protection against burglars and room theires, and as far as keeping the door fastened to which it is applied, is concerned, it is a perfect protection.

In these days of false keys and pick locks, no traveling person should be without one. It may be carried in ones pocket as readtly as a small safe key, and any door can be fastened instantly with it. Mr. Hart intends applying for a patent, and when its convenience is known the "Door Alarm" must come into extensive use. Mr considerably more moderate than that of the Har is known as the inventor of the celebrated "Combined Parallel Pliers" and other useful mekanical instruments.

Wisconsin Legislature.

Madison, Feb. 10. ASSEMBLY.—Called to order by the Speaker.
Mr. Billings moved to recall from Senate the bill amending charter of the city of Berlin, for perfection. It was contended that erasures and interlineations were made which were never acced on, and that it stood adopted in an objectionable form. ectionable form.

After some discussion the motion was lost.

After some discussion the motion was lost.

Mr. Mason called up resolution directing Committee on School and University Lands to present a bill authorizing the State Treasurer to pay to countes the 25 per cent from sales of Swamp Lands, to which they were outified.

Mr. Corson moved it to be indefinitely postponed, as a bill was now perfecting for the disposition of the fund.

poned, as a bill was now perfecting for the disposition of the fund.

Mr. P. U. Smith spoke against the motion, as the counties had already been swindled out of 74 per cent of the money, all of which belonged to them, and he trusted the remaining 25 per cent would not be now stolen from these counties. While making his remarks, the Speaker lannounced that Mr. Falvey was ready to shower, and Mr. Smith took his seat.

and Mr. Smith took his seat.

Mr. Falvey replied to the two first interrogatorie, stating that he intended no disrespect to the committee or Assembly by neglecting to attend, but he had understood he could be done without for a few days, to enable him to attend to important business of his own, and that others who were present would be examined.

This the Assembly deemed insufficient and do.

clared Mr. Falvey guilty of contempt, under the two first interrogations. He was allowed some time to prepare an answer to the third, which, after some hantering, Mr. Arnold was allowed to read merely in the capacity of a clerk, as they would not admit of hearing anything from the counsel. It proved an able paper, contending that this body had no opportunity to investigate acts of a previous legislature. But was well handled by Mr. Knowhon in reply, and was declared insufficient, and Falvey declared guilty of contempt under their interrogatory. Mr. Falvey was then ordered to be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and to bring him before the Assembly at 10 A. Assembly.—Assembly called to order by the Speaker at 10 A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Miller. After a short lapse of time Mr. Falvey appeared and a communication was read from him, reiterating that he intended no disrespect to the Committee or the Assembly, and that if imprisonment was imposed upon him, he would apply to the Supreme Court for reliet.

Mr. Knowlton then offered a resolution placing Mr. Falvey in close custody of Sergeant at Arms, for the next ten days, for refusing to appear be fore the Committee, which was adopted. Mr. Knowlton then offered a resolution deferring judgment for refusal to answer questions when brought before the Committee, which, after some lengthy discussion, was adopted. Mr. Falvey was then ordered into castody of the Sergeantat Arms, according to the resolution.

MILWAUKEE: FRIDAY MORNING, FEB'RY 12.

The Administration Defeated. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, su accredited Administration organ, thus writes under date of February 5th, on the eve of the great struggle in the House of Representa-

It is considered by the administration, by the members of Congress, and by sagacious poli-ileians, as involving the late of the present gov-ernment and the democratic party. If Mr. Har-ris' resolution prevails—which is a Douglas Republican movement combined—the democratic party and the administration will be hors de com-

There is some doubt about the result. It is believed that notwithstanding the scenes of lust night, and the previous test votes, the friends of order and of the Union will rally on Monday and defeat the motion of Mr. Harris. It is, however, a most important and somewhat doubtful contest.

The President has not had his reception today, as is his usual custom, but has devoted his time to this erisis and in consulting members of

Not only the President, but the members of his Cabinet, were actively engaged, on Friday, in "consulting mombers of Congress," and no ues thus: less than three Cabinet Ministers were on the floor of the House, during the protracted struggle on that day and night, laboring with recalcitrant democrats, and using all their influence to secure a favorable vote. In spite, however, of all these arts and appliances; in defiance of President d frowns and in disregard of Presidential blandishments, THE PROPLE'S HOUSE stood firm! The Administration measure was defeated and the resolution of Mr. Harris, of Illia ois, to put the Lecompton Swindle in the custody of a Solust Committee, provailed by a vote of 114 yeas to 111 mays. The Republican members voted, in stern and solid phalaux, for the motion, and with them voted some 20, or 25 Northern and Western Democrats. The Southern mombere of all parties, without a single exception, voted against the motion, and they were alded, as usual, by a score, or more, of Northern Democratic Doughfacos.

Had a British Ministry sustained such a defeat, they would either have resigned their places on the spot, and transferred the reins and responsibilities of power to their successful opponents.or they would have dissolved Parliament and taken an appeal to the country. In either case they would have shown a proper respect for the Pop ular Will, ne expressed by the People's Represontatives. But our exclusively Democratic Ad. ministration not only disregards and doffes this expression, but persists in its ellipris to force through its obnoxious party measure, and pro oleices its ability and determination to do so, cost what it may, or oppose who will. Shall not a day of reckoning come for these faithless and tronchorous stowards?

comprehend its views in reference to the heavy | he thus poetically pictures Mr. B.: cost of State Printing. We rather suspect, for our own part, that we comprehend them exactly. The News made a violent outery, a few days since, at the extravagance of the Republicans a gloss, but the sun will seen dry it and wither the voting $20,000, last year, to some "black" the leaf. has been made. If the publishers of the Argus, as State printers, were paid $46,000, the people will see in this fact a powerful reason for requiring that the expense of the printing shall not reach a higher figure than that. The State printers ought to do the State printing. But it has been revealed that, ever and above the respectable sum of $15,000, the "republican reform party" have lavished upon a few of their favorite newspaper publishers—for doing the dirty work of the "party—some $20,000 additional. will see in this fact a powerful reason for t

The logic of the News is briefly this. It is all right and proper for the Legislature to vote the respectable sum" of $10,000 to the Democratto State Printers, who ought to do all the work and get all the pay; but it is wastelul, corrupt and unwarrantable to "lavish" the enormous amount of $20,000 upon "Black Republican" publishers, who ought not to do any, work, "dirty" or otherwise, nor got any pay. No doubt the News is perfectly sincere in this opinion. but heretofore, when similar appropriations were made by provious Legislatures to Democratic publishers, the News undo never an objection. It is only when "Black Republican" publishers, following " safe Democratio precedents," get a few printing jobs from the Legislature, thus the vigilance of the News is aroused, and that it barks long and loudly against this " unwarrantable business."

The Position of the President. If the opposition were confident of their ability to successfully muct and answer the arguments of the President, they would state his position fairly, and assail it holdly,—Milicaukes News. This is the opening paragraph of a long artiale in the News, falsely charging " the opposition"-which must laclude, of course, all the Anti-Lecompton Democrats-with mis-representing the President's position on the Kansas question. Now to this charge it is only necessary to oppose the fact, that "the opposition" have published Mr. Buchayan's Lecompton Message breadcast, and thus allowed him the opportunity to state his own position, fairly and fully. As for misrepresenting it, there is no possible motive for dolog so. No mis-representation could make it worse than it is. The Message justifies, defends and makes a party question of the Lecompton Swindle, and, as the News truly romarked a few weeks since, "Congress cannot accept this Constitution without repudiating the principles and pledges of the Demo-" cratic party for the last three years,-without "being the instruments for consummating a great "outrage upon the people of Kansas, and upon the " mon who stand pledged to the fundamental " doctrino that." THE PROPER SHALL BULE." If there be no "mis-representation" in this forcible protest of the News against the Swindle, whorein have the opposition unfairly stated the position of the President? The Sentinal, at loset, has said nothing in regard to it, that the above extract from the News does not abundant ly justify.

EVERETT HOUSE, NEW YORK,) February B, 1668.

To the Editor of the News :--Why should I be in this small city and not keep up a correspondence with you, who are living in the metropolis of that wealthy and growing State—Wisconsin? There is no just runson why I should forget my own dear city, which I love; yet I always feel backward in writing for a paper, for lear the editor may call a committee to pass their opinion whether it would be policy to publish what might be said by one who speaks what he thinks.

We fear that on some previous occasion this aspiring young author has been unfavorably passed upon by the consulting "committee" of some leading paper, and, abashed by the fallare, has withdrawn from the public press to the private columns of the News. We cannot, howev' quiers some of the gems which sparkle so thickly all through the correspondence. Premising that duty, not inclination, took him to and keeps him in New York, Mr. Wall contin-

Well, to come to the point, this city is in a very stupid condition. There is plenty of money stored away in the vaults of the various banks and monied institutions, but to get it out is the next question. I never in my life have seen a poople so perfectly bewildered in money matters, as the people of New York are at the present

Our author proceeds to relate how he tried to solve the riddle of getting money out of the N. Y. Banks, and thus, humanely help the "studies in our city and State " for some of the patronized by all ranks, as affording the best for money "stored away" in the New York Bank vaults. Will it be believed that the offer was declined-nay, worse, that it was treated as an "insult"-by these "stupid" New York people? But Caleb has a reason for it: and he thus accounts for the "bewilderment" which would not allow the New Yorkers to see how much prefera-

It is that confounded "Committee" againthat ubiquitous, iniquitous, mischief-making 'Jonny Lind Olub," that has "bewildered" New York, and rendered even Caleb's persuagive accents of no avail. It is clear to us that be has an action against them for spoiling his business there, and we hope he will bring it along with him when he comes back. But all is not a desert in New York. Caleb CLEYRLAND, OHIO, Feb. 8, 1858. Masses. Entrons: -It has occurred to me that, possibly you might not object to at least one letter from a Oleveland correspondent during his temporary residence there.

I propose to speak especially of the schools of schools, direct, the course of instruction which is kept uniform in all the schools, meets with, and instructs the teachers, &c. Visiting Committees are appointed for each of the eleven wards, and another visiting Committee for the High Schools In this free school system, the number of Primary Schools is 82; Intermediate Schools 20; Grammar Schools 8, and High Schools 2. The Primary and Intermediate Schools are in the same building with the Grammar Schools. Besides the usual teachers, there are, for all the schools one teacher of peumanship, one of drawing, and one of music. Nothing has struck methe weather. The thaw and rain, however, of the few days back, induced the forrymen to cut out the fee in the way, of the passage of their boat across the river. This made a narrow chainel with lee on solther hand. Between three and four o'clock in the afternoon of the day mentioned, the ferrymrn proceeded to take over three passangers in a skiff; these were Mr. McDonald and his wife, who had a house and farm on the opposite blue, and a gentleman from Prescott, name unknown. When midway in the river the wind forced the skiff down against the classes. more favorably in those schools than the department of drawing. The Board in their annual report say: "The question whether the art of drawing out be successfully taught in the vari-

Our experience for the last five years has shown that it is practicable, and that there is no more difficulty in teaching this, than any other branch of aducation. So far from being above the comprehension of younger pupils, it is one of the most attractive and profitable studies for primary scholars, and if happily presented, may be made the key to most other branches of instruction, especially reading, writing and natural nistory." I should like to see Prof. Brainard, the popular teacher of this branch, exercising his vocation in the schools of Milwaukee. I imagine there are few cities in which the school system is more complete than here. Matters are so managed that the anticipated honor of gradu utions from the lowest department, through the pid" people cut of their "bewilderment." But I have been specially interested in one highly useful and novel feature of Western Institutions, viz : an industrial, or ragged school. It was found here, as it is in Milwaukee, and everywhere else in cities, that there was a large number of children too poor to attend even a free school, and others whose parents were too Indifferent to take the trouble to send, and still others who had no parents. An individual undertook to get up a school exclusively for this poorest and most abandoned class.

fai physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, it do it with a full knowledge of its currative powers, in releving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most exernitating disease to an affectionate mother NURSING SORE MOUTH, is cured as if by a mirrale; your own temper is restored to its matural arectess, and your babe from short and tretted maps to cain and exect selumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain for blackings to you, husband and household.
